Re: 2023 Native American Heritage Month

Dear Esteemed Guest:

November 1 will mark the beginning of Native American Heritage Month, a time to celebrate the history, culture, traditions, and legacy of Native American communities throughout the country. I am honored to lead the Los Angeles City Council, in collaboration with the Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission, in this year's recognition of Native American Heritage Month.

I invite you to join me as a guest in Council Chambers and Spring Street Forecourt reception to celebrate Native American Heritage Month.
